BELGRAVIA THE APEX CHARDONNAY 2008

BY CAMPBELL MATTINSON

Never heard of this label though I see that they've been around since 2003. Chardonnay is such a strong point of the Orange region.

This has really got it going on. It's a wine of delicacy and finesse, but it does not lack power. Lemons, almonds, nectarine and subtle toasty oak.

Whispers of estery, bubble gum-like flavour - but to such a low level that no one will complain. As a closet wine show judge I'd give this a gold medal.
